Dear Mr. Henshaw:

In looking over the financial disclosure statement I filed on May 14, 1979, I discovered an error was made on page 1, Section III.

In this section I listed Andrews Farm as having a category of value V, whereas it should have been listed showing a category of value of V1.
I will appreciate your filing this amendment with my report.

Best wishes,

The Honorable Charles E. Bennett
Chairman

Room 2360 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Mr. Chairman:

Enclosed is my Financial Disclosure Statement. I would like to take this opportunity to clarify the categories listed under Income, Section IB and Interest in Property Held, Section III. The bulk of these funds are from trusts established by my late wife's father. At her death their assets were distributed to her children and I did not share in any of them. Her other assets, not under the trusts, are to be divided between myself and her children. Such distribution has as yet not been made.

Sincerely,

Richard Bolling

SELECT COMMITTEE ON ETHICS

Washington, D.C. 20515

December 28, 1978

Hon. Tim Lee Carter
2161 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, D.C.

Dear Tim:

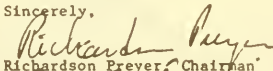

This is in reply to your letter of December 4, 1978, wherein you request an advisory opinion concerning the application of House Rule XLVII, the limitation on outside earned income, to your particular situation.

Your letter sets forth the following circumstances: 1) you own approximately 1200 acres of farmland which is managed on a day to day basis by others; and 2) you own an interest in a drug store which generates income to you. Specifically, you ask whether the income you receive from these two enterprises would be subject to the earned income limitation under Rule XLVII.

Rule XLVII defines the term "outside earned income" to mean "wages, salaries, professional fees, honorariums, and other amounts... received or to be received as compensation for personal services actually rendered (by a Member)." Therefore, if the income you receive from the farming operation or the drug company is in the form of a salary or is otherwise compensation for personal services rendered, that income would be subject to the limitation. On the other hand, if the compensation received is essentially a return on equity, then it would not be considered to be earned income. In Advisory Opinion #13, the Select Committee determined that "...a Member would not be required to allocate his share of the profits of the business as outside earned income when the facts and circumstances show that the income is in reality a return on investment." In the two situations you describe, the income you receive is apparently not generated in any way by your personal services, and therefore such income would not be subject to the earned income limitation under Rule XLVII.

If you have any further questions on this matter, please contact the Select Committee staff on ext. 58461.

Sincerely,

Richardson Preyer, Chairman

Charles E. Wiggins

 Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Mr. Henshaw:

Enclosed please find my Financial Disclosure Statement which was requested by your office because I had omitted certain details concerning Section IB.

While reviewing the original Financial Disclosure Statement submitted on May 15, 1979, I realized that I had made an error in listing the value of the various stocks which both my wife and I own, either jointly or separately. To wit, I used the table for INCOME, Section IB, instead of the table for Section III, for stock values.

The document I submit today reflects corrections in this area which will clearly set forth the various dollar amounts of stock which I own either separately or jointly with my wife.

I would like to request that this letter be made an Addendum to this corrected document in order to clear up any possible confusion or ambiguity which may occur to the public upon comparing this document to the earlier one submitted on May 15, 1979.

Thank you for advising me on making the appropriate clarifications on my Financial Disclosure Statement.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely,

William F. Clinger, Jr.

public interest? Thus, the Council has prevailed on Alcoa to trim a four-cent rise in the price of primary ingot by a penny, to 80¢, cents a pound. Overseas, meanwhile, white metal was heading toward 70 cents. Result: a heavy outflow of aluminum scrap to foreign markets, where the return is highest. Funds which might have otherwise gone to expand domestic smelting capacity, now running full-bore, are not available. Naturally, the trouble is more complicated than the price controls, which, as well as environmental opposition, have also played a part. But eventually, comments one close observer, "shortages will emerge, breaking the guidelines and driving domestic prices above the levels which I would probably have prevailed in the Council's absence."

Guidelines, in fact, exacerbate nearly all the evils that inspired them in the first place. "The great mass of those who put their trust in the traditional order," wrote Thomas Mann of the German inflation of 1918-23, "the innocent and the unworried, all those who do productive and useful work but don't know how to manipulate money . . . all these are doomed to suffer." Inflation makes cynics; guidelines, in failing, as they must fall, make them more bitter. Inflation stirs jealousies; guidelines, in pillorying an occasional scapegoat, stir them harder. Inflation distorts prices; guidelines, in trying to suppress that distortion, make a bad thing worse. This is the fundamental economic objection to any kind of controls—that prices, which have a lot to say, are throttled as bearers of bad news. "It might be helpful," commented Walter Wriston, chairman of Citicorp, last week, "to remember that prices and wages represent an essential form of economic speech and that money is just another form of information." In a changing economy, prices must change, and some must pierce a federally sanctioned average. But for the Council to make an exception to the rule is to risk the wrath of the not similarly favored. Not to make the exception is to guarantee a shortage, which in turn will set off a chain of other dislocations. The Council's only hope is a timely recession and the dignity of a quiet retreat. Failing that dispensation, pressure will build for the government to "do something." Time and again the Administration has shunned mandatory controls: yet as recently as Sept. 19, 1977, it shunned guidelines, too—"It is our judgment," Stuart Eizenstat, assistant to the President for domestic affairs, said in a letter to Sen. John Tower (R. Texas), "that a program under which the Federal government promulgates formal numerical guidelines such as those of the early 1960s would not be a desirable or effective remedy for inflation."

Off and on now for 4,000 years, so a new historical survey (Forty Centuries of Wage and Price Controls, by Robert L. Schuettinger and Eamon F. Butler, Heritage Foundation, Washington, D.C.), inflation-ridden governments have been rounding up the usual suspects. They have banned and jailed them for keeping a black market, but the punishments have served no purpose except to gratify the rulers who kept them out. The book is morbid reading, because the same pagant is routinely played out, generation after generation. Now comes the Council, another chapter in the history of an unborn historian, who will assume himself a hundred years from now to think that economic medicine men religiously followed will could create an IBM and price it 4-for-1. If inflation is a lie, then controls are the cover-up. The deceit is that the nation cannot pay its bills but pay money to finance them. In this ancient process the Council is powerless. For a while, some prices will not be raised, or will rise more slowly than they otherwise would, but the inflationary forces will out. It is the simple truth that the Federal Reserve Board has been making too much money and that Congress for years has been voting unconscionable deficits, and that this is the cause of inflation.

Last week, on the eve of the Conservative victory in control-bound Britain, the Financial Times printed a light-hearted letter from an Oxford don named Dr. F. J. Cuff. The letter suggested that government ministers should be made to put their assets into bonds, which they would hold throughout their term in office. In a time of runaway interest rates and soaring prices, of course, the bonds would suffer appalling market erosion, which would come out of the ministerial hide. We laughed before we saw in the just the inspired reform it is. Inflation, to anyone in Washington with a fat income and a house in the District or one of its neighboring boom towns, is like the best of the rain on a well-oiled roof. What better proof for a reduction in spending than for the guilty parties to see their life's savings go up in smoke? What surer road to the elusive balanced budget?

FORD BLASTS BUSINESSMEN

HON. BRUCE F. VENTO

OF MINNESOTA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 15, 1979

● Mr. VENTO. Mr. Speaker, as is widely known, Henry Ford II chairman of the Ford Motor Co., is relinquishing his position of leadership in this giant enterprise.

Mr. Ford, in a reflective frame of mind, recently reviewed for a management conference at the University of Chicago some of what he believes are the shortcomings of capitalism and of businessmen.

What he has to say is constructive and deserves widespread attention. I am pleased to include in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD at this point an article from the Chicago Sun-Times which was reprinted in the St. Paul Dispatch, April 27, 1979:

FORD BLASTS BUSINESSMEN

CHICAGO—The great majority of capitalists' problems today reflect the failure of businessmen to take politics and new social movements as seriously as they should have," according to Henry Ford II. Speaking at a University of Chicago Business School management conference here Thursday, Ford added:

"Often, businessmen have refused to respond to what's valid in the critics' case. With the benefit of hindsight, businessmen should have tried to respond sooner and more positively to broad social demands for pollution controls—which is one area where market forces aren't sufficient and where some government regulation clearly is necessary."

Ford said his own industry should have responded sooner to the growing demand for smaller, more fuel-efficient cars.

"But, though we did introduce the subcompact Falcon in the early 1960s, we didn't really make an all-out effort in the subcompact field until the 1970s," when the Pinto was introduced.

The Ford Motor Co. chairman pointed out that his company actually anticipated the demand for safer cars by offering seat belts as an option as early as 1958.

"Though we advertised the option extensively," he said, "the public didn't want to spend the extra money on them. And so

Dear Ted:

It has been brought to my attention that in my Financial Disclosure Statement that I filed with your office on May 4th, I had inadvertently transposed the category of value Roman Numerals from Section I to Sections III, IV, and V instead of using the Category of Value Roman Numerals delineated for those three sections.

Therefore, I wish to amend my statement to indicate the correct Roman Numerals for Sections III, IV, and V utilizing those set forth in the middle of page 1 in lieu of those stated at the beginning of page one.

Thus, Section III should read:

Stock - Springfield Apts. Inc.	III
Mike Hall Building	IV
Hall's Hand Laundry, Inc.	V
Ann Rue Hall Trust	V
P.D. Hall Estate	V

Section IV should read:

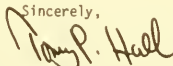

Mike Hall Building - Note -	II
Hall's Hand Laundry - Note -	II
Anthony Wayne Trust - Note -	V
Springfile Apts - Note -	V

Section V should read:

Stock, Springfield Apts. Inc.	III
-------------------------------	-----

I regret this omission and appreciate your amending my original statement with this letter.

Sincerely,

Tony P. Hall
Member of Congress

The Honorable Charles E. Bennett, Chairman
House Committee on Standards
2360 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Mr. Chairman:

Based on a conversation with Roy Dye of the Staff of the House Committee on Standards, it appears there was a misunderstanding in instructions received by my staff regarding the filing of my 1979 Financial Disclosure Statement. Contrary to my staff's understanding, Section V appears to require that any purchase or sale should be disclosed at the gross sales price category if the price exceeds $1,000, irregardless of whether there was a loss or gain.

Accordingly, pursuant to my staff's conversation with your office as of this date, my 1979 Financial Disclosure Statement is amended as follows:

Section V:

Amend sale of 7% interest in partnership in Peachtree Trace Apartments (Category IV) to reflect capital gain of approximately $3,000 and ordinary loss of approximately $9,057.

Add sale of interest in Ridgcrest Associates (Category II) at a loss.

Add sale of National Distributing Company Stock (Category I) at a loss.

Add settlement of North American debenture claim (Category I) at a loss.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Very truly yours,

ELLIOTT H. LEVITAS
Member of Congress

Use this part to figure your tax if:

- Your income on Form 1040, line 34, is more than $20,000 and you checked Filing Status Box 1, 3, or 4 on Form 1040.
- Your income on Form 1040, line 34, is more than $40,000 and you checked Filing Status Box 2 or 5 on Form 1040.

• You had more exemptions than were covered in the Tax Table for your filing status.

• You figure your tax using the alternative tax computation on Schedule D (Capital Gains and Losses), Schedule G (Income Averaging), or Form 4726 (Maximum Tax on Personal Service Income).

Part II Computation for Certain Taxpayers Who Must Itemize Deductions

If you are included in one of the groups below, you MUST itemize. If you must itemize and the amount on Schedule A (Form 1040), line 40, is more than your itemized deductions on Schedule A, line 39, you must complete Part II before figuring your tax.

You MUST itemize your deductions if:

A. You can be claimed as a dependent on your parent's return and had interest, dividends, or other unearned income of $750 or more and less than $2,200 of earned income if single (less than $1,600 if married filing a separate return).

Note: If your earned income is more than your itemized deductions on Schedule A, line 39, enter your earned income in Part II, line 3, of this schedule, unless you are married filing a separate return and your spouse itemizes deductions. Generally, your earned income is the total of any amounts on Form 1040, lines 8, 13, and 19. See page 11 of the Instructions for Form 1040 for more details.

B. You are married filing a separate return and your spouse itemizes deductions. (There is an exception to this rule. You don't have to itemize if your spouse must itemize only because he or she is described in A and enters earned income instead of itemized deductions on Part II, line 3, of this schedule. If this is the case, don't complete Part II. Go back to Form 1040, line 33, and enter $0. Then go to Form 1040, line 34.)

C. You file Form 4563 to exclude income from sources in U.S. possessions. (Please see Form 4563, and Publication 570, Tax Guide for U.S. Citizens Employed in U.S. Possessions, for more details.)

D. You had dual status as a nonresident alien for part of 1978, and during the rest of the year you were either a resident alien or a U.S. citizen. However, you don't have to itemize if at the end of 1978, you were married to a U.S. resident or citizen and file a joint return reporting your combined worldwide income.

2	Enter the amount from Schedule A, line 40	2
3	Enter the amount from Schedule A, line 39	3

The Honorable Edmund Henshaw
Clerk of the House
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Henshaw:

This is in further reference to my Financial Disclosure Statement, which your office received April 26.

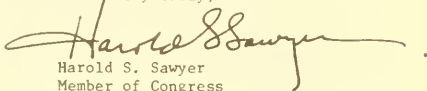

I would like to make the following change on Page 1 - Section III - of that report:

ADD - "Promissory note of Dayton Walther Company received for sale of" Citation Companies, Inc. common shares sold 10/17/78 - $875,500.00.

I would also like to DELETE the entire second line under "Real Estate not for Income" section on Continuation Sheet (Sec. III) (page 2 of 2). On this line appears "Algoma Township, Kent County, Michigan", and this was a typographical error as a duplicate description appears on the following line. In this line to be deleted there also appears an erroneous dollar amount.

Thank you for your attention in this matter.

Yours very truly,

Harold S. Sawyer

Paul Simon

U.S. Congressman, 24th District Illinois

Release: Tuesday, April 24
79PS-12/D-20

Contact: Terry Michael, 202/225-5201

SIMON RELEASES 24TH ANNUAL
COMPLETE FINANCIAL STATEMENT

WASHINGTON, D.C.--Congressman Paul Simon Tuesday (4-24-79) released his 24th annual complete personal financial statement, including all income, assets and liabilities for himself, his wife and their two children, Sheila and Martin.

In addition, the Southern Illinois congressman released financial statements for members of his personal staff with annual salaries of $15,000 or more.

Simon has been making the voluntary financial statements since 1955, when he entered the Illinois House of Representatives. He followed the practice during eight years in the state House, six years in the Illinois Senate, and four years as Lt. Governor, and continued it after election to Congress in 1974.

As Lt. Governor, he was the first state official in the nation to require similar statements of his staff members, a practice he continued when elected to Congress. Simon is believed to have followed the practice of complete personal financial disclosures longer than any other public official currently holding office in the United States.

Simon's statement lists 1978 income for himself and his wife, Jeanne, totaling $80,917.78. The figure includes his House salary, reimbursement for travel and other expenses, rental income, stock sale, interest and dividend income, honoraria for appearances, book royalties and miscellaneous items. Simon's 1977 income was $73,666.19.

The statement also shows assets (as of Jan. 1, 1979) of $272,480.67 and liabilities of $130,789.18, for a net worth of $141,691.49--contrasting with a Jan. 1, 1978 net worth of $121,445.87.

In addition to statements of income and assets for his children, Simon also listed two gifts he received in 1978 with values greater than $25, a practice he began in 1976.

He noted that he received a book of about $25 in value from the Alaska Coalition and dinner and a football ticket to a Washington Redskins game from a friend, Barry Zorthian.

"Complete financial statements are the best way to deal with conflict of interest situations that may arise during public service," Simon explained.

"They allow constituents to decide for themselves whether an office holder is serving the public interest or some other interest."

The complete Simon financial statement follows, along with financial statements for the following members of his staff: Ray Buss, district assistant; Ray Johnsen, office manager; Terry Michael, press secretary; Vicki Otten, legislative coordinator; Nick Penning, legislative assistant; and Virginia Otterson, West Frankfort office manager.

DISCLOSURE STATEMENT -- CALENDAR YEAR 1978REPRESENTATIVE MORRIS K. UDALL

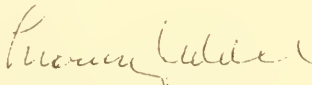

This statement and attached schedules are intended to provide all the required information to be contained in the Financial Disclosure Statement required by House Rule ~~XLIV~~, plus certain additional and supplemental information and schedules, not required by House Rules, but which I am voluntarily making part of this statement.

I request that all of this information, both required and supplemental, be made available on request to the public or the press.

During my congressional service, and long before there was any binding requirement to do so, I have tried to set an example and encourage legislation by making complete voluntary disclosures at regular intervals (i.e. Congressional Record, 1/10/67, p. H64; 4/16/71, p. H3223; 4/14/76, p. E2053). Beginning 15 years ago (Congressional Record, 4/10/63, p. 5845, 88th Congress), I have made periodic disclosures, and in the last five years I have made it a practice to attach a supplemental statement to the April 30th report to the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct.

In accordance with the above, I am attaching the following:

1. The 1978 U.S. Income Tax Form 1040 and certain schedules thereof filed this month by Mrs. Udall and me.
2. A list of 1978 Honoraria, showing travel reimbursements associated with each.
3. A list of outside income items from writers fees, etc., 1978.
4. Stock ownership for Mrs. Udall and me as of January 1, 1979.
5. Interest in Real Estate as of January 1, 1979.
6. A list of personal property, major items.
7. A list of 1978 travel reimbursements provided "in kind" by government and private sources.

Computation of Tax for Taxpayers Who Cannot Use the Tax Tables

Use this part to figure your tax if:

- Your income on Form 1040, line 34, is more than $20,000 and you checked Filing Status Box 1, 3, or 4 on Form 1040.
- Your income on Form 1040, line 34, is more than $40,000 and you checked Filing Status Box 2 or 5 on Form 1040.

• You had more exemptions than were covered in the Tax Table for your filing status.

• You figure your tax using the alternative tax computation on Schedule D (Capital Gains and Losses), Schedule G (Income Averaging), or Form 4726 (Maximum Tax on Personal Service Income).

- 1 Enter the amount from Form 1040, line 34
- 2 Multiply $750 by the total number of exemptions claimed on Form 1040, line 7
- 3 Taxable income. Subtract line 2 from line 1. (Figure your tax on this amount by using the Tax Rate Schedules or one of the other methods listed on line 4)
- 4 Income Tax. Enter tax and check if from: ☒ Tax Rate Schedule X, Y, or Z, ☐ Schedule D, ☐ Schedule G, or ☐ Form 4726

General Tax Credit

- 5 Multiply $35 by the total number of exemptions claimed on Form 1040, line 7. (If you are married filing a separate return, skip lines 6 through 9 and enter the amount from line 5 on line 10.)

- 6 Enter the amount from line 3, above
- 7 Enter $\left\{ \begin{array}{l} $3,200 \text{ if you are married filing a joint return or a qualifying widow(er)} \\ $2,200 \text{ if you are single or an unmarried head of household} \end{array} \right\}$

- 8 Subtract line 7 from line 6

- 9 Enter 2% of line 8 (but do not enter more than $180)

- 10 General tax credit. Enter the amount from line 5 or line 9, whichever is larger

- 11 Tax. Subtract line 10 from line 4. (If $0 or less, enter $0.) Enter this amount on Form 1040, line 35

Computation for Certain Taxpayers Who Must Itemize Deductions

If you are included in one of the groups below, you MUST itemize. If you must itemize and the amount on Schedule A (Form 1040), line 40, is more than your itemized deductions on Schedule A, line 39, you must complete Part II before figuring your tax.

You MUST itemize your deductions if:

A. You can be claimed as a dependent on your parent's return and had interest, dividends, or other unearned income of $750 or more and less than $2,200 of earned income if single (less than $1,600 if married filing a separate return).

Note: If your earned income is more than your itemized deductions on Schedule A, line 39, enter your earned income in Part II, line 3, of this schedule, unless you are married filing a separate return and your spouse itemizes deductions. Generally, your earned income is the total of any amounts on Form 1040, lines 8, 13, and 19. See page 11 of the Instructions for Form 1040 for more details.

B. You are married filing a separate return and your spouse itemizes deductions. (There is an exception to this rule. You don't have to itemize if your spouse must itemize only because he or she is described in A and enters earned income instead of itemized deductions on Part II, line 3, of this schedule. If this is the case, don't complete Part II. Go back to Form 1040, line 33, and enter $0. Then go to Form 1040, line 34.)

C. You file Form 4553 to exclude income from sources in U.S. possessions. (Please see Form 4553, and Publication 570, Tax Guide for U.S. Citizens Employed in U.S. Possessions, for more details.)

D. You had dual status as a nonresident alien for part of 1978, and during the rest of the year you were either a resident alien or a U.S. citizen. However, you don't have to itemize if at the end of 1978, you were married to a U.S. resident or citizen and file a joint return reporting your combined worldwide income.

- 1 Enter the amount from Form 1040, line 31
- 2 Enter the amount from Schedule A, line 40
- 3 Enter the amount from Schedule A, line 39
- Caution: If you can be claimed as a dependent on your parent's return, see the Note above. Be sure you check the box below line 33 of Form 1040.
- 4 Subtract line 3 from line 2
- 5 Add lines 1 and 4. Enter here and on Form 1040, line 34. (Leave Form 1040, line 33 blank. Disregard the instruction to subtract line 33 from line 32. Follow the rest of the instructions for Form 1040, line 34.)
